Dear Steve Heller:

Thanks very much for agreeing to read Paul Rand's new text for us. I enclose a copy of the proof (still in need of editing, which is to come), along with our usual guidelines for readers. As I mentioned on the telephone, I will need a report by October 2, and as a small way of saying thanks I can offer you an honorarium of $125 in cash, or twice that amount in Yale books (at list price). I also enclose a couple of recent catalogues for you to peruse. Whether you decide on cash or books, I'll need your social security number to process your honorarium.

Don't hesitate to telephone if you have questions. My direct-line number is 203-432-0927. Also, you can send your report by fax to 203-432-2394, if that's more convenient.

Yours sincerely,
