Spacious mid-century modern home of the late Paul Rand, the foremost graphic designer of our times. Designed by Paul and his wife, the former Ann Binkley who studied with Mies van der Rohe at the Illinois Institute of Technology. "The Rand home is set in wooded Connecticut acreage, and by coincidence meets the formula of ideal setting defined by the Japanese; a hill to the north, a brook to the east, a road to the west, looks to the south. Compact, spacious, it neither tosses the inhabitants out in the open by too much "picture-window" exposure, nor shuts them off from the outdoors by conventional barriers." Weston Historical Society.
